And another.

… Respondents

Order:

This writ petition has been filed seeking Mandamus to declare the action of the first respondent in not issuing certificates to the petitioner with regard to B. Tech. course completed by him.

In view of the orders dated 10-08-2007 and 24-08-2007, the Principal of the first respondent-college is present in person before this court today.

Though no counter affidavit is filed, learned counsel appearing for the Principal of the first respondent-college submits that the orders dated 10-08-2007 and 24-08-2007 were received by his client on 24-08-2007 and, immediately, on the same day, necessary certificates were furnished to the petitioner.

As much as it is stated that necessary certificates were furnished to the petitioner, no further adjudication is necessary in this writ petition and the same is closed placing on record the submission of the learned counsel appearing for the Principal of the first respondent-college.
